PADI Divemaster Course

Would you like to be a leader in the diving industry? Would you like to be recognized as a diving professional? If you answered yes, then the PADI Divemaster Course at Texas Dive Center is for you. The PADI Divemaster Course is a prerequisite for those wishing to earn the PADI Assistant Instructor and PADI Open Water SCUBA Instructor ratings.

Qualifications

To enroll in the PADI Divemaster Course you must meet the following requirements:

- At Least 18 Years Old
- PADI Advanced Open Water Diver (or equivalent from another training organization)
- PADI Rescue Diver (or equivalent from another training organization)
- Current Emergency Response Primary and Secondary Care (CPR) (or equivalent from another training organization)
- Cleared for Diving by a Physician
- Logged at Least 40 Dives

What Will I Learn

You will learn leadership skills through both classroom and independent study. You complete water skills and stamina exercises, as well as training exercises that stretch your ability to organize and solve problems. You will learn to help others improve their SCUBA diving skills. You will put this knowledge into action through a structured internship or series of practical training exercises.

Why Be A PADI Divemaster?

- Plan, Organize and Direct Dives
- Assist PADI Instructors During the training Sessions for any PADI Diver Course.
- Conduct PADI Skin Diver Course
- Conduct PADI Discover Snorkeling Program
- Conduct PADI Discover Local Diving Experience
- Conduct Discover Scuba Diving Program (with Discover Scuba Diving Leader Qualification)
- Teach PADI Underwater Digital Photography (with PADI Underwater Digital Photography Instructor Rating)
- Guide Students on the Tour Portion of the PADI Open Water Course.
- Teach Emergency First Response (after completing the EFR Instructor Course)

What Diving Equipment Will I Need

Each diver needs a complete set of SCUBA equipment. Divers enrolled in the PADI Divemaster Course at Texas Dive Center are given a 50% discount on rental equipment for their course.
